

Normal Plus

V1

Dark eyed Nick was madly in love with his wife,
From nowhere a bombshell hit their life,
I'm gonna give you the greatest bucket list
Hey my love that's how we will deal with this.

V2

Gentle Eve put her hands on her husbands knee,
You knowwhat will be will be
Now I don't want all that sparkle and fuss
My Darling all I want is Normal Plus

Chorus

Normal Plus the simple things in life,
Ah simple things with just a hint of spice,
We don't want to shoot for the stars
We don't need to ride in fast cars
I just want to crank it up a few bars

V3

I just wanted to give you your dreams
Is that as crazy as it seems
I want you to have all I wanted you to have Honestly is that so bad

Chorus

Normal Plus the simple things in life,
The simple things with just a hint of spice,
We don't want to shoot for the stars
We don't need to ride in fast cars
I just want to crank it up a few bars

V4

And Eve said

I promise I will buy that goddess of a gown
And we will slow dance to greet the dawn
Your beautiful voice is all I want for me
To keep with me safe for all eternity
